Summary: LATE FILED. AUGMENTATION REQUIRED. On January 27, 2003, David Rubin, Director, Service Analysis, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Cmmr. Brown in an all-party meeting in San Francisco. Also present was David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown. Rubin noted that PG&E's policy position in the proceeding is that all customers should pay their fair share of costs incurred by the Department of Water Resources (DWR), but PG&E acknowledges that the State has provided various incentives to distributed generation and that there may therefore be an argument in favor of some limited exemption from the DWR charges. Rubin also outlined how the settlement agreement on distributed generation issues represents a fair outcome. With respect to the applicability of the settlement agreement to net metering customers, Rubin stated that the settling parties had disagreed on the appropriate treatment, but had agreed to address this question through the Advice Letters.

Summary: LATE FILED. On January 29, 2003, Christopher Witteman, counsel for the Consumer Protection and Safety Division (CPSD), met with Peter Arth, advisor to Pres. Peevey, and Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. At the meeting with Peter Arth also present were Lester Wong, advisor to Pres. Peevey, and Jason Zeller, Assistant General Counsel. During the meeting with Peter Arth and Lester Wong, Zeller and Witteman indicated that CPSD believed that ALJ's original proposed decision was correct, that the evidence supported a finding that Clear World's officers and directors were unfit for public utility service, and that an order to show cause hearing was the most expeditious way for the Commission to find facts and resolve this issue. At the meeting with Trina Horner, Witteman stated his belief that an order to show cause was appropriate in this context and consistent with past Commission decisions.
